

GRADUATE STUDENT CLASSIFICATION AND DEFINITION

Each student who registers for a course at Aurora University will be assigned a classification. Classification will be made at the time of entry to the university and reclassification will be made every semester, or if a student shifts from a non-degree classification to a degree or certificate classification.

Classification	Definition
G1	First-year graduate student (less than 18 semester hours)
G2	Second-year graduate student (18 or more semester hours)
G3	First-year doctoral student
G4	Second-year doctoral student
PG	Post Graduate (with master's or doctoral degree seeking second degree or certificate)
GA	Student-at-Large (not admitted and not seeking degree (may earn no more than six semester hours))
AU	Auditor (not admitted and taking courses without credit)
PR	Provisional (attending classes but admission procedures incomplete)
